

First call:
48th Sandbjerg Meeting on Membrane Transport

Monday May 23rd, 1.00 pm – Wednesday, May 25th, 2.00 pm 2016
Sandbjerg Estate, Sønderborg, Denmark

This year's programme will include the following oral sessions, all with a series of excellent invited speakers:

1. Membrane proteins studied by novel imaging techniques (coordinator: Lene Nejsum, Aarhus, Denmark)
2. Purinergic Signalling (coordinator: Ivana Novak, Copenhagen, Denmark)
3. Regulated cell death beyond apoptosis: the many ways of losing cell life. (coordinators Nina Himmerkus and Andreas Linkermann, Kiel, Germany)
4. Free communications in membrane transport (coordinators: Markus Bleich, Kiel, Germany and Jens Leipziger, Aarhus, Denmark)

In addition, there will be a poster session and one plenary speaker.

This year's plenary speaker will be Prof. Poul Nissen, Aarhus University, Denmark

1. Prof. Poul Nissen, Aarhus University, Denmark

Titel: "Structural and functional studies of membrane transporters in crystals and as single molecules"

If you would like to participate in this year's Sandbjerg meeting, please let us know before the 1th of May 2016. Please note that registration for all participants takes place via the following link:

https://auws.au.dk/48th Sandbjerg Meeting on Membrane Transport 2016

If you wish to contribute with a presentation, please send a tentative presentation title and abstract (format specified on the homepage) and indicate whether you prefer oral or poster format. Based on these, we will select a number of oral presentations of 10-20 minutes duration and set up the final programme, which you will receive early May 2016.

The number of participants in the meeting is limited to about 80. The full price for room and board is DKK 2500 pr. participant (free for pre- and post-graduate (PhD) students from Aarhus University, for other students, the price is DKK 1200). Further information about the wonderful meeting venue can be found at: <http://www.sandbjerg.dk/>.

We are looking forward to seeing you at this year's Sandbjerg meeting!

Best regards,
